

About Index Exchange

We're a proud industry pioneer with nearly 20 years' experience accelerating the evolution of ad technology for the world's leading experience makers. Our massive scale, transparent pricing, and superior infrastructure allow us to eliminate inefficiency and reduce costs—and we pass those savings on to our customers. Maximising working media for marketers and growing revenue for media owners means we're able to help power the digital content and experiences that consumers enjoy all over the world.
